TURKISH ATROCITIES.

No Permanent Relief for Persecuted Armenian Christians.

PROHIBITED FROM GIVING AID

Agents Sent to Distribute Aid Contributed by British Christians Constantly Hampered in Their Work by Representatives of the Turkish Government.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The following statement has just been received by a gentleman in this city from responsible persons in Turkey, fully cognizant of the facts:

Some eight months ago a movement was started on the part of the Turks to send aid to the victims of their barbarity at Sassoun. A gift of £2,000 was reported, and a committee was organized to see to its distribution. Small sums were offered to the people on condition that they would sign receipts in the nature of thanks for the generosity thus manifested, at the same time conveying that it was not the soldiers of the sultan who injured them, but only a little row that had occurred between them and the Kurds.

Naturally they refused the proffered aid on such conditions. Here was the government that with fire and sword, and with almost unparalleled cruelty and fiendishness, had utterly wasted their homes, coming and offering a paltry dollar a head to the survivors who are on the ground approof of their gracious sovereign's charitable regard for them, while they could go among their Moslem neighbors and identify property worth many times this sum as that which had been wrested from them, while it would be easy for the government itself to collect and return from among the more distant Kurdish nomads nearly the whole amount they had lost.

In the meantime, the English men and women had collected for their fellow Christians some efficient aid. When the government learned of this, and that agents were coming to distribute this money, officials began to say: "If these people will not accept our aid, why should we allow others to come in and help them." Influential friends of the sufferers finally persuaded the government to modify their demands to the extent of accepting a simple receipt of funds received, and even then be [illegible] the proffered aid. However, the promise that they have been called upon to receipt for up to the present time has not been sufficient to prove burdensome. Of the £2,000 only £400 has yet materialized, and nearly £2 per day goes for salaries of the commission.

When agents were appointed by the British ambassador to distribute the funds from abroad it was with some difficulty that permission was secured for them to enter the devastated region. The services of the existing Turkish commission were offered to distribute these contributions, but finally this point was apparently waived, and they were allowed to locate themselves at the village of Semal.

The sight of the crumbling walls of its once comfortable dwellings convinced them that the first thing to be done was to prepare these buildings for occupation, but when they were ready to start the members of the Turkish commission reported to the British agents that they were instructed not to allow them to meddle with the buildings, and that all relief rendered must be given through their hands.

At the same time the men sent ostensibly as their guard constantly exercised the most annoying espionage, listening to every word they said and reporting to the government every act and statement of all that was done. Under these circumstances, the British representatives made vigorous protests to the government, and the questions at issue were referred to the central authorities. As a temporary measure, so that the poor people might not remain entirely hungry, it was arranged that the agents might, for the present, distribute food, only it must be in the presence and under the inspection of a representative of the government.

Considerable money had also been contributed by the Armenians, from various cities, with the expectation that the local Armenian authorities, in concert with the British agents, would see to its distribution. The government, however, has sent them strict orders that if they choose to hand over their funds to the Turkish commission for distribution they can do so; otherwise, they are peremptorily estopped from distribution. Of course, they do not hand over their funds, and so the money must wait until a better condition of affairs can be inaugurated.

The general condition of the country is getting worse. The Christians are having a hard time in harvest. They are in danger of their lives. It is usual for them to remain in the fields during harvest, but now they dare not. The women usually carry food to the fields for the workers, but now they are afraid to do so. The other day about two miles from here a girl carrying food to the fields for the workmen was set upon by three young Turks and fearfully beaten. A row followed, and two or three Christians were wounded.

At another village nine hours from here a band of thirty horsemen entered the village of Kupri Koy and first went through the village in a riotous way and greatly terrified the people, demanding the girls and brides. Later they took their rifles and went riding through the streets of the village. The son of the priest opened the door, with the object of inducing them to leave by giving money. He was shot down like a dog. They kept up this for about three hours. They broke open some doors and fired into the houses. The government has not yet taken any steps in the matter, though this band is well known.

Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt Engaged.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Current report in society circles, which is not denied by friends of the interested parties, has it that Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt, the only daughter of Cornelius Vanderbilt, and one of the foremost heiresses of the world, is engaged to Mr. Moses Taylor. Mr. Taylor is also very wealthy, as he inherited part of the estate of $40,000,000 left by his grandfather, Moses Taylor, which, with his share of his father's fortune, will give him $20,000,000. He is 26 years old and a graduate of the Yale class of '93.

Dangerously Wounded While Hunting.

BUDA PESTH, Sept. 4.—The injury which the Archduke Ladislas received while hunting Monday in the forest of Agya, Hungary, is of a more serious nature than at first supposed. The bullet from his gun perforated the archduke's thigh bone, and the discharge of the weapon fired a number of cartridges in his pocket, which set fire to his clothing.

British and American Sailors Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—By a private letter from Montevideo it is learned that the sailors of the American cruiser Newark and those from the British merchant marine in port had a rough and tumble fight. A Briton took down the American flag that was used in the decorations of a saloon. That started the ball rolling, and for twenty minutes the fighting was fast and furious. No one was seriously injured. Later in the day John Astrom, one of the Newark's men, was dangerously stabbed in the abdomen. He was recovering when the letter was written.

Hyde's Body Again Exhumed.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 4.—The decapitated body of B. F. Pitezel, one of the supposed victims of H. H. Holmes, was again exhumed from the American Mechanics' cemetery yesterday by the coroner's physicians. The coffin, with its ghastly burden, was carried into the tool shed of the cemetery, but the utmost vigilance was maintained to keep the object of the exhumation a secret. It was subsequently learned that one of the bones of the leg had been removed and the body reinterred. The dead man's skull was severed from the decomposed body last Saturday, under orders from the district attorney's office.

Italian Murderers Sentenced to Death.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Sept. 4.—Judge J. Kearney Rice, of the Middlesex county court, yesterday sentenced Joseph Aragio and Annello Spina, Italians convicted of the murder of Antonio Prisco, to be hanged in the jail at New Brunswick on Oct. 18. The defendants became very much excited when the death sentence was announced to them through an interpreter. Spina rose and began a fierce denunciation of the court in Italian. The men were quickly quieted and led away, after Judge Rice had ordered that a jury of twelve be struck to witness the hanging.

Another Judge Ignores Law.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—Judge Seaman, of the federal court, attacked the Chinese exclusion act yesterday when he discharged from custody the four Chinamen arrested in Detroit for entering the United States, and who were ordered to be deported by Commissioner Graves, of that city. Judge Seaman, in discharging the men, questioned the constitutionality of the act. Judge Seaman holds that the powers of a commissioner are limited. He cannot pass sentence and inflict fines, but simply hold for the federal grand jury.

Chinese Actors for Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Sept. 4.—The Cotton States and International Exposition authorities have received advices of the arrival at San Francisco of Kee Owyang, the concessionaire of the Chinese village, with 204 boy actors and 200 cases of merchandise from Hong Kong. The party left Hong Kong on Aug. 12. The company of Chinese actors will reach Atlanta in a few days. The buildings of the Chinese village are practically completed and the performance in the theater will begin on the opening day of the exposition.

Shot Through the Heart.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 4.—Matthew Urban was shot through the heart while attempting to protect his brother from a gang of roughs at Pleasant Hill, Schuylkill county. Peter Ruscharvage was arrested on suspicion of having committed the murder, and was committed by Squire Daley to Pottsville jail to await trial. Pleasant Hill, which is on the line from Luzerne, is becoming notorious for the number of murders committed there.

Religious Riots in India.

BOMBAY, Sept. 4.—In a riot at Dhulia, province of Khandeish, between Hindus and Mohammedans five of the latter were killed outright and five more, who were wounded, died soon afterwards. Fifty Mohammedans in all were wounded. The riot was caused by an attack which the Mahammedans made upon a Hindu procession. The police guarding the procession fired upon the rioters.

Opened His Wife's Letter.

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 4.—Rudolf Erickson, of Grassflat, Clearfield county, was bound over by Commissioner Griffins to answer in the United States court for opening a letter addressed by his wife to Robert Bloomgrest, who, Erickson alleges, was her lover. Erickson was a sub mail contractor at the time the offense was committed.

Wanted in Several States.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 4.—Sheriff Andrino left yesterday for Cincinnati to bring back train robber Pat Crowe, who was arrested there on Monday. Andrino will be armed with requisition papers from Governor Stone, but it is expected that a fight will ensue over Crowe, as he is wanted in several states.

New York Jail Breakers Caught.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Sept. 4.—It is reported that "Joe" Killoran, "Harry" Russell and Charles Allen, the Springfield postoffice robbers who broke jail in New York July 4, are under arrest in East St. Louis. Officers here practically admit that the men have been captured, but will give out no particulars.

Baltimore Tailors' Strike Ended.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 4.—The strike which was begun last week by the pants makers of Baltimore ended yesterday, when about 400 men and women returned to work for the contractors, and the remaining 200 opened seven co-operative shops.

Niagara Defeats Isolde.

PLYMOUTH, Sept. 4.—The regatta yesterday of the Royal Western Yacht club of England was the occasion of a fine race, in which Niagara beat Isolde by a minute and nine seconds.

Two Years for Forgery.

BRIDGETON, N. J., Sept. 4.—Judge Hoagland sentenced Frederick R. Watson to state prison for two years, at hard labor, for forgery.

AN ALLEGED POISONER.

A Married Woman Under Arrest at Her Mother's Funeral.

POISON FOUND IN THE DEAD BODY.

Before Dying Mrs. Bliss Declared to Her Physician That Her Food Had Been Poisoned by Relatives Who Would be Financially Benefited by Her Death.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The funeral of Mrs. Evalina Bliss, a wealthy lady who died last Friday, was held yesterday, and immediately afterward the daughter of the dead woman, Mrs. Alice Fleming, was arrested at the Colonial hotel on a charge that she murdered her mother by poison.

The case is a mysterious, and in some respects a sensational one, as the death of Mrs. Bliss gives to her daughter the income from an estate of $300,000 left by Robert Swift Livingstone, who was the first husband of Mrs. Bliss. To Dr. Bullman, who was summoned to her bedside Friday night, Mrs. Bliss said that she had been poisoned by relatives who would be financially benefited by her death. She said that she had eaten clam chowder and a piece of apple pie. The doctor says that Mrs. Bliss' attendants failed to give her the medicines he left for her. He secured the dish in which the chowder had been served, and a piece of the pie, and gave them to the coroner.

The coroner had an examination made of the dead woman's stomach by Chemist W. T. Scheele, who says that he found traces of metallic poison in the stomach, and also in the dish which had contained chowder, and that it had evidently been very skillfully prepared by someone with a knowledge of poison.

Suspicion pointed to Mrs. Fleming. Detectives called for her and escorted her to the funeral, and, although she was the chief mourner, three of them rode with her to Greenwood cemetery. They returned with her and then formally placed her under arrest at her home. She was taken before Magistrate Simms, where she smiled and seemed entirely unworried, and the magistrate remanded her to the custody of the coroner to await the result of an inquest.

A Formidable War Balloon.

HARTFORD, Sept. 4.—Samuel Andrews, a machinist of this city, claims to have perfected a war balloon which he has sold to a syndicate of New York Cubans for use in aid of the Cuban insurgents. The balloon has been thoroughly tested in the fields of New Jersey, and is said to work perfectly. It is fitted with an armored box, from which a number of bombs can be suspended. The bombs are ignited and released by automatic machinery in the box, and after all are discharged the box explodes, destroying the balloon and the secret mechanism. The machinery is worked by a steel spring.

Chairman Quay's Executive Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 4.—Senator Quay was at campaign headquarters for some time yesterday, during which he announced the appointment of the executive committee, and members at large of the state committee. The former consists of Frank Willing Leach, chairman; Lieutenant Governor Walter Lyon, Congressman, W. A. Stone, Congressman John B. Robinson, ex-State Senator Thomas V. Cooper, ex-Lieutenant Governor Louis A. Warres, State Senators C. Wesley Thomas, Boies Penrose, W. H. Andrews, Lyman D. Gilbert and Samuel A. Davenport.

One of the Injured Has Died.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—One man died yesterday and thirty-four men and women lie in the Brooklyn hospitals suffering from injuries caused by the runaway locomotive crashing into the Coney Island bound excursion train on the New York and Sea Beach railroad at Woodlawn station, Sixty-sixth street and Twenty-second avenue, on Monday afternoon. The dead man is William H. Poinier, of Newark, N. J. Some of the injured will have to lose their limbs and be otherwise maimed for life.

Watchman Overpowered and Safe Robbed.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 4.—The safe of the Lynn and Boston railroad company in the office here was entered by burglars about 2 o'clock in the morning and about $200 taken. Watchman Lewis was sitting in the office when two men knocked him insensible, gagged and bound him. They then cut the telephone wires and blew open the safe. Mr. Gerrish, who lives near by, was aroused by the noise of the explosion, and coming out to investigate, was fired at by the burglars, but was not hit.

A New Cycling Champion.

DENVER, Sept. 4.—Arrangements are being made to have O. B. Hackenberger, winner of the Labor Day twenty five mile road race, who made a new world's road record of 1 h. 4 min. 47 sec., attempt to beat the world's record of twenty-six miles, 1,187 yards, which was made by Fred J. Titus. Hackenberger is a country boy, 21 years old, never owned a wheel, and had been training only three weeks, using a rented wheel.

Nazrullah Khan Leaves England.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—Shahzada Nazrullah Khan, second son of the Ameer of Afghanistan, who came here on the invitation of the government in the latter part of last May, and who has given no end of worry to those commissioned to entertain him, departed for Paris yesterday afternoon. The leave taking was an affair of considerable pomp, being attended with a full state ceremonial.

Forest Fire Near Egg Harbor.

EGG HARBOR CITY, N. J., Sept. 4.—A large forest fire has started west of this city. It started in a dense swamp, leaping towards Mock City, and is consuming many acres of cedar piney. Several houses are in its course. The farming people are fighting the flames and making back fires in hopes of checking the element. The origin of the fire was from cinders from a locomotive.

HE WAS TOO ADVANCED.

And Therefore Rev. Mr. Davies Resigned His Pastorial Charge.

ANSONIA, Conn., Sept. 4.—There is a decided sensation in religious circles of this city over the "advanced" position assumed by Rev. Henry E. Davies, of the Derby Congregational church, in reference to Sabbath observation. The recent opening at Housatonic Park with various Sunday attractions caused a crusade, led by all Catholic and Protestant pastors except Mr. Davies, who defied his colleagues, claiming that the days of "blue law" Sundays were past, and the people should now realize this fact and conduct themselves accordingly. He said emphatically that the laboring classes should have amusement on Sundays, and that all who thought otherwise were hypocrites.

These statements were emphasized by the formation of a baseball club by the minister from among the attendants at his church, and with them he played at the park. The church at once took up the matter. A division resulted, and at present the different factions are bitterly denouncing the attitude of each other. A climax was reached yesterday, when Mr. Davies presented his resignation.

Valkyrie to be Painted White.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Valkyrie III will be a white yacht when she enters the races for the America's cup against Defender. She was towed up from Sandy Hook yesterday afternoon and went into dry dock at Erie Basin. The yacht will be patched and finally painted white. Valkyrie will remain in dry dock probably up to tomorrow evening. Tomorrow Defender will be found somewhere near her, for somewhat the same purpose, and then both yachts will be measured by John Hyslop, the official measurer of the New York Yacht club. After that it will be made known what Valkyrie will allow Defender, if anything, and how much Defender will have to allow Vigilant in the trial races already held.

Missing Treasurer Fitz's Shortage.

CHELSEA, Mass., Sept. 4.—It became known here today that the affairs of Alfred W. Fitz, son of ex-Mayor Fitz, of this city, and treasurer of the Chelsea Wire Fabric company, who has been missing since Aug. 12, are in a bad condition. The company's factory on Broadway has been closed and expert accountants have been set at work examining the books. President William Martin, of the company, while admitting that Fitz had deceived the directors in his annual reports, denied that the missing treasurer had taken $100,000, as reported. The amount of the shortage will not be known until the experts finish their work.

Durrant's Trial Begun.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The trial of Theodore Durrant began yesterday. Although counsel for the defense said they would be willing to have the Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams cases tried jointly, when the district attorney referred to the finding of Minnie Williams' body, the defendant's counsel objected to the introduction of anything relating to the Williams murder, which he said was the basis for a separate action. The jury visited the scene of the murder in charge of the sheriff.

Highwaymen in Omaha.

OMAHA, Sept. 4.—A band of twelve highwaymen held up a band of people in an Omaha suburb early in the morning and secured several hundred dollars. It is an organized gang, which has long evaded the police. There were four persons in the carriage, who had been in the city enjoying themselves. One of the robbers searched each man, taking everything of value.

To Keep Out Cholera.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 4.—The prevalence of cholera in Honolulu and in the Orient has created a scare here. The local board of health is already adopting stringent measures to repel its invasion. City Physician Wheeler says that at no time have Pacific coast cities been so seriously menaced by the scourge as now.

A Temperance Lecturer's Downfall.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 4.—W. J. McConnell, a temperance lecturer, known for his eloquence in all parts of the country, was fined $20 and costs and sentenced to thirty days in the workhouse yesterday for intoxication. McConnell has for years lapsed into occasional sprees, but lately lost all control of himself, and is a wreck.

Fatal Wind Storm in Illinois.

QUINCY, Ills., Sept. 4.—A report reached here this morning to the effect that Kinderhook, Pike county, was visited by a wind storm which destroyed many buildings and killed three people. Kinderhook has neither telegraph or telephone communication, the wires being down.

Convicted Cuban Insurgents Deported.

HAVANA, Sept. 4.—A company of Cubans under sentence of imprisonment in the Fortress of San Severa, Morro Castle, were deported yesterday on board the steamer Catalina. They are under sentence of life imprisonment, while ten are condemned to twenty years.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

At Evansville, Ind., fire destroyed the Heilman flour mill, an elevator and 100,000 bushels of wheat.

Fresh conflicts have occurred between the Italians and Abyssinians in the province of Minas-Geraes, Enderta.

Mr. Pierre Lorillard, the tobacco magnate of New York, has decided to reside permanently in England.

Reports from all sections of the country show that the millions enjoyed a fine view of the eclipse of the moon last night.

The married daughter of ex-Governor Ames, of Massachusetts, was thrown from her carriage at North Easton, Mass., and had her skull fractured.

Miss Carrie E. Stoddard, of Chicopee, Mass., was struck by a horse while riding her bicycle, and died from her injuries. A corset steel was driven into her heart.

Aaron Freeman, son of a prominent farmer living near Hot Springs, Ark., was taken from his home by a mob and so severely beaten that he cannot recover. He was accused of assaulting a half witted girl.

VIRGIN OF GUADALOUPE.

Opposition to the Patron Saint of Mexican Indians

MAY LEAD TO SERIOUS TROUBLE.

Americans Regret the Attitude of Missionaries in Endeavoring to Uproot a Popular Superstition—Few Catholic Households in Mexico Without the Virgin's Image.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 4.—There is some fear lest the recent circular of the Protestant missionaries attacking the popular belief in the Virgin Guadaloupe may arouse the inherent fanaticism of the Indians, who will flock into the city in great numbers in October, during the centennial festivities, the number estimated being from 75,000 to 100,000. Some Americans regret the action taken by the missionaries who, however, defend their position as being already fully supported by eminent Catholic prelates of former centuries, who protested against the adoration of the Virgin of Guadaloupe, denouncing it as a gross imposition.

The belief in this apparition of the virgin is shared by many thousands of upper class people, and there is certain to be deep feeling aroused when the missionaries begin to circulate their projected daily paper, devoted to eradicating what they term a popular superstition. Radical liberal papers applaud warmly the proposed action of the missionaries, and are inciting them in their course of disseminating literature calculated to overthrow this ancient belief.

The Virgin of Guadaloupe is cherished here as much as Our Lady of Lourdes in France. Miracles without number are ascribed to her intervention and there are few Catholic households in the country without her image. Evidently a tremendous religious controversy is in preparation.

The Diario Del Hogar says the dissensions among the higher Catholic clergy over the coronation of the Virgin of Guadaloupe indicate a profound rupture in the church.

General Rocha and the seconds in the Verastegui-Romero duelling case, will, according to the direction of the superior court, have to stand a second jury trial, but their lawyers are now working to secure from the supreme court an affirmation of the verdict of acquittal. Colonel Romero, however, must, it is believed, serve his time.

Threatened Strike Trouble in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 4.—When the Brackes Wire Nail works passed into the possession of the Consolidated Wire and Steel company, and it was shut down for repairs, the 400 employes declared that they would not return to work unless they were paid the prices won by the other wire mill men of Cleveland in their recent strike. Yesterday the company tried to get forty men imported from Pennsylvania into the mill, but the strikers induced them to turn back. A large squad of police was sent to the mill, but the imported workmen finally scattered, many of them declaring that they would return home. Serious trouble is apprehended, as the company is determined to start the mill at its own wages.

Senator Gorman's Confidence.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 4.—Senator Gorman, in discussing the future of the Democratic party and the present situation in Maryland, said: "I have observed that political conditions affecting the state of Maryland, and particularly affecting the Democratic party, come in cycles. So far as the party is concerned, there was a seemingly adverse wave in 1875. Ten years later, in 1885, there was a little disturbance. This year, according to the political almanac, another phenomenon is to be anticipated. But in my mind there is no more apprehension as to the results to the Democratic party than in the former periods mentioned."

Postoffice Safe Blown Open.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 4.—The postoffice at Moosic, near this place, was entered by burglars during the night and two registered letters and $300 worth of postage stamps taken. The postoffice is in a one-story double frame building in the center of the town. The burglars first invaded a blacksmith shop near by and secured tools with which an entrance was forced into the building. Once inside the safe was blown open and everything of value taken.

All Quiet at Ishpeming.

ISHPEMING, Mich., Sept. 4.—Everything is quiet today. The shovels are all working, and the South Shore railroad is preparing to move the ore to Marquette. There are very few strikers around the camping grounds. One of the military companies stationed here will probably be transferred to Negaunee, as the shovel men there have refused to work unless protected by the soldiers. Many of the strikers are leaving for other districts.

Cholera's Ravages in the Orient.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 4.—The steamship Empress, of China, brings Oriental advices to Aug. 23. Cholera increases in Pekin, and the deaths exceed 1,500 daily. It is also increasing in Japan. The total number of cholera cases reported throughout Japan on Aug. 19 was 771; deaths, 420. The aggregate number of cases from the 1st inst. is 25,000, of which 1,230 occurred on transports, and the deaths are 16,278.

Deadly Duel Between Farmers.

PERRY, O. T., Sept. 4.—Thirty miles north here, in Kay county, William Knapp and U. S. Oller fought over some hay. Oller cut Knapp badly with an ax, and Knapp broke both of Oller's arms and stuck a pitchfork through his abdomen. Oller is dead and Knapp cannot live. Both men are well to do farmers.

Engineer Loeschor Released.

DENVER, Sept. 4.—Hellmuth Loescher, the engineer of the Hotel Gumry when the building was destroyed by the recent explosion, has been released from custody. City Attorney Whitefor, guided by the verdict of the coroner's jury, authorized Loescher's release.

TO TURN ROBERTS DOWN.

DETERMINED EFFORTS OF SOME OF PLATT'S LIEUTENANTS.

EVEN IF HE STAYS ON

The Plattite Knife May Well Cause Terror to the Comptroller—Husted's Fate Recalled—An Interesting Situation in Current Politics—Other Incidents.

Special Albany Letter.

Opponents of Comptroller Roberts who are pretty close to Mr. Platt himself reiterate that Roberts will certainly not be renominated for Comptroller, the fact that the "old ticket" has been supposed to be slated for renomination for weeks past to the contrary notwithstanding. If the names of some of the men who say this and who reiterate it could be quoted without violating confidence it would be a political sensation, and not a pleasant one perhaps, to friends of Mr. Roberts.

The latest phase of this talk of turning Roberts down in the convention has to do with the suddenly announced candidacy of Judge Henry A. Childs of Orleans county for the Court of Appeals. This announcement has come so suddenly and has followed so closely upon the heels of the Roberts rumor that taken in connection with other facts a great many political observers believe that the two may be parts of the same story. Judge Childs resides in the eighth judicial district, of which Mr. Roberts is also a resident. If Roberts remained on the ticket there would be no show for another man from that section. But if Roberts were forced to give way to some trusted Platt man, such as, for instance, State Committeeman John F. Parkhurst of Steuben county, nothing could be more natural than that Mr. Platt should make things even with western New York by nominating Judge Childs for the appellate bench. That Mr. Roberts' friends fear that Judge Child's cadidacy means that Roberts is to be retired is shown plainly enough by the attitude of the Buffalo newspapers in regard thereto.

WANT ROBERTS' HEAD ON A SALVER.

Whether Mr. Platt has actually consented to turn down the present Comptroller or not, that he has been implored to do so by some of his closest lieutenants is not open to question. It comes on the very best authority and if confidence is not denied, by those who are in a position to know. It is stated by one of the colleagues of Mr. Roberts on the ticket that within a week some of the most prominent organization men in the State have been to Mr. Platt and have told him that orders or no orders they will not support Roberts. It has been represented to him that Mr. Roberts' unpopularity with the working organization of his party is such that if renominated he would be a heavy burden for the ticket to carry. It is no secret that Secretary of State Palmer and Superintendent of Public Works Aldridge feel especially aggrieved at Roberts, and that their friends assert that the Comptroller has in pursuit of his own ambition systematically pulled down everybody else. They make no bones of asserting that no comptroller has so energetically demanded legislation making him a more powerful official than even the Governor himself, through the powers he exercises over corporations and other large financial institutions as the present incumbent. Superintendent Aldridge has his special grievance in the refusal of Comptroller Roberts to pay certain of his employes. Then again, Captain Palmer's friends say that they can trace right to Roberts' door some published stories alleging incompetency and extravagance in the present administration of the office of the Secretary of State; so that it is a happy family all round.

WOULD BE AN INSULT, SAY HIS FRIENDS.

Of course, on the other hand, it need hardly be said that Roberts' friends are very indignant at the persistency of these authenticated rumors that Roberts is to be turned down. They say that having made up his mind to be a candidate to refuse him the nomination now would be an insult unprecedented in politics, and that it would cost the State tickets thousands of votes. So that either way you look at it, if we are to accept the estimates of the contending factions, the settlement of this Comptrollership difficulty is sure to cost Mr. Platt's tickets some thousands of votes.

Speaking of Mr. Roberts, there is reason to believe that the true reason for his hesitation to be a candidate has never yet been published. Some people who are pretty close to the Comptroller do not believe that the real cause was either health or business. They say that his ambition to be Governor is as acute as ever, and if this is the fact no politician will believe that a mere question of slight physical disability or of business would cause a man cherishing that ambition to renounce so powerful a position as the Comptrollership. They affirm that the true reason of Mr. Roberts' hesitation was the fear that if nominated Mr. Platt's friends would slaughter him at the pools.

DID HE FEAR PLATT'S KNIFE?

Shortly before he finally announced his candidacy Comptroller Roberts said to the writer, with much earnestness: "None of my best friends wants me to be a candidate." Why this was so he did not explain, but if the theory given above, which comes from good authority, is correct, both Mr. Roberts and Mr. Roberts' friends fear the Plattite knife.

And certainly, as one of the leading anti-Platt men pointed out the other day, the statistics of recent political history would seem to warrant this hesitation. The pathway of politics is strewn with the dead and the wounded of Platt's enemies. A notable case was in 1881, when the Republicans elected every candidate on their State ticket with the single and significant exception of James W. Husted for State Treasurer. Husted, as will be remembered, had been one of the most powerful causes if not the chief cause of Platt's failure to be re-elected to the United States Senate. If other instances were wanted, no doubt Warner Miller, Speaker Fish, who was defeated for the Assembly in Putnam County in 1891 by order of the Platt machine; Ira Davenport and dozens of less conspicuous of the anti-Platt contingent of former years could refresh Comptroller Roberts' memory. A Clew to the Bomb Sender.

PARIS, Sept. 4.—It is reported that the police have discovered an important clew to the perpetrator of the attempt on the life of Baron Alfonse de Rothschild, on Aug. 24. The attempt, which was made by sending a letter containing explosives through the mails, to the banking house of Baron de Rothschild, resulted in the serious injury of the baron's confidential clerk, M. Zadkovitz.

Alleged Bribery Scheme Checked.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—A rumor was recently published that the subordinates of the city police force were forming an organization to have for its object the raising of a fund of $50,000 to influence members of the next legislature to defeat plans for reorganization of the force. Little credence was placed in the report by the public, but Commissioners Roosevelt and Parker, acting upon it, or upon other information, took steps to checkmate the scheme by directing Acting Chief Conlin to notify each captain to read an order to his men at midnight forbidding them to contribute to such fund.

Desperate Bank Depositors.

STORM LAKE, Ia., Sept. 4.—Great excitement prevails over the closing of the Buena Vista State bank. Depositors are largely people with the earnings of years entrusted to the bank. A big crowd fills the streets, and it would only need a word to lead to deeds of violence, the business methods of the Lemon family, who run the institution, having caused great indignation.

A Prisoner's Suicide.

TOWANDA, Pa. Sept. 4.—Hattie Gafford, who was sentenced by Judge Dunham yesterday to six months for keeping a disorderly house, committed suicide in the county jail shortly afterwards by taking strychnine.

New York's Prohibition Convention.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 4.—The state prohibition convention was permanently organized yesterday afternoon with the election of Rev. C. H. Meal as chairman. Amid much enthusiasm a resolution was adopted congratulating Police Commissioners Roosevelt, Grant, Parker and Andrews, of New York city, for so respecting their oath of office as to dare to enforce the Sunday excise laws. There are 534 delegates in attendance. Last night the prohibitionists made a street parade, followed by the second mass meeting of the convention. Addresses were made by Professor Dickie and John G. Woolley, of Chicago.

THE EVIL EYE.

And How a Coincidence Helped to Rivet the Chains of Superstition.

Miss Symonds and a party of friends had driven from Athens to the foot of Hymettus in a carriage drawn by two horses. The drive being over, the coachman proceeded to give corn to his horses. One of them, however, would not eat, but hung his head and refused all food. The driver, in a state of wild excitement, thereupon presented himself before his fares and declared, with frenzied words, that one of the ladies had "overlooked" the suffering horse, and that the beast was about to expire. The only way to get it cured from the effects of the evil eye was for the overlooked to spit upon it. The driver appears to have had no doubt which lady was the possessor of the evil power exercised upon his animal. Naturally enough, the lady in question had no great fancy to try this primitive form of veterinary surgery and refused.

The man's entreaties and adjurations, however, became so vehement and so threatening that at last the alleged possessor of the evil eye had to yield. No sooner had she spat upon the horse than a most welcome change set in. The beast, which had appeared to be at its last gasp, promptly grew better, and very soon was eating like its fellow. Of course the change was due to a coincidence. Probably the horse was at first too tired to eat, but during the discussion "to spit or not to spit" he no doubt got rested. By the time, then, the ceremony was performed he was quite fit for breakfast. It was, in fact, post hoc, not propter hoc. The spitting and the recovery following each other so closely was a mere coincidence. But though we may hold this view it was of course not held by the Greek coachman. He, we may be sure, felt at once completely confirmed in his belief in the evil eye.

The coincidence gave him what he thought ample proof of the efficacy of his charm against "overlooking." If nothing had happened, and the English ladies had been able to laugh at him for making one of them do a disagreeable thing without any result, the driver might have begun to think that, after all, his juggling rites were nonsense. Depend upon it, the coincidence riveted the chains of superstition upon him tighter than ever. After the incident we have just noticed he will probably believe as firmly in the evil eye and the way to counteract its influence as he will in the procession of the seasons or the following of day by night.—London Spectator.

The Only Remedy in the World that Refunds Purchase Price if It Fails to Cure the Tobacco Habit in 4 to 10 Days is

Narcoti-Cure

It Cures While You Continue the Use of Tobacco.

The greatest discovery of the age!

A certain, pleasant, permanent cure.

A lifetime's suffering ended for $5 00.

Why smoke and spit your life away? Why suffer from dyspepsia, heartburn and drains on your vital forces?

Stop using tobacco, but stop the right way! Drive the nicotine from your system by the use of this wonderful remedy.

NARCOTI CURE is warranted to remove all desire for tobacco in every form, including Cigar, Cigarette and Pipe Smoking, Chewing and Snuff Taking.

Use all the tobacco you want while under treatment, and in from four to ten days your "hankering" and "craving" will disappear—the weed won't taste good.

Then throw away tobacco forever.

NARCOTI-CURE is entirely vegetable and free from injurious ingredients. It never fails to give tone and new vigor to the weakest constitution.

Remember NARCOTI-CURE doesn't deprive you of tobacco while effecting a cure; doesn't ask you to buy several bottles to be entitled to a guarantee; doesn't require a month's treatment; and, finally, doesn't enable you to stop

With NARCOTI-CURE when you are through with tobacco, you are through with the remedy. One bottle cures.

Gentlemen:—I have used tobacco for over twenty-five years, chewing and smoking every day from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m., stopping only for meals. On Monday, February 4th, I called at your office in Springfield, and bought a bottle of the Cure which I used as directed, and on the tenth day the desire for tobacco had left me and it has not returned. I did not lose a meal while taking the Cure. My appetite has improved and I consider Narcoti-Cure a grand thing.

Very respectfully,
CHAS. L. LINCOLN.

Mr. Frank H. Morton, of Chicopee Falls, Mass., late inspector of Public Buildings for Massachusetts, says:

I used tobacco for twenty-five years, and was a confirmed smoker. In just eight days' treatment with Narcoti-Cure I was through with tobacco, in fact the desire for tobacco vanished like a dream.

Very respectfully,
FRANK H. MORTON.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and ads to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

MONTGOMERY.

Reception to a Pastor—Ball Game Postponed—Will Have Water Soon—Death From Appendicitis—The Lawn Festival—A Black Snake Captured in the Wallkill—Narrow Escape from Drowning—Three Months for a Drunk.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—The Brick Church congregation will tender their pastor, Rev. J. F. Berg, a reception at the parsonage, on Wednesday evening.

—Mr. James O. Miller is able to be out again. We are glad you still survive, James O, but what about that show? When you regain your strength and old time vim and vigor we'll listen intently to a few choice selections.

—The children of the the Sunday schools, who held their picnic at Midway Park, on Thursday, report a very pleasant and enjoyable day.

—We hope to have a street sprinkler next summer. What an improvement it would be to the present dusty streets?

—The Montgomery Jr.'s and Campbell Hall Jr.'s were to have played a game of ball on Saturday afternoon here, but the game was postponed on account of rain.

—The sacrament of the Lord's supper was celebrated in the Presbyterian and Brick churches, last Sunday. Four persons became members of the latter church, all by confession of faith, which is very encouraging for the new pastor, Rev. J. F. Berg.

—The new boiler has been placed in the power house, but none of the other machinery has arrived yet. In order to build the stand pipe, it will be filled with water as it is put up. The water for this will be pumped through the mains from the Wallkill at the woolen mills. The cistern or reservoir is nearly completed. The digging was finished on Saturday night, and as it was feared that the sides would cave in, all the workmen worked Sunday, and in consequence the walls were nearly all laid. It is thought that we will have water in our homes in a month. The cistern is 30 feet 4 inches at the bottom and 32 feet at the top.

—While Mr. Frank Leeds was driving his young colt up Clinton street, on Monday morning, the horse took fright and a runaway ensued. Frank was landed up against a tree, where the colt freed itself from the sulky, but was afterwards captured. Neither man nor colt was seriously injured. It was a lucky escape for Frank.

—The boy whose death we mentioned, last week, as being a boarder at the Saratoga Farm of Mr. Floyd Owens, through a misunderstanding was said to have died here. He died in the hospital in New York city where he was taken to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

—The schools here opened on Monday morning, and in consequence the children were all hustling on that morning.

—The lawn festival which was held for the benefit of the chapel fund, on Friday evening, was a success and was well attended. The net proceeds were over $35. "The band played on," and rendered some fine music, their playing being exceptionally good considering their lack of practice. We don't see why we could not have a few more concerts, as the way people from Walden, Campbell Hall and the neighboring country attended and seemed to enjoy the evening is a testimonial of appreciation to the band.

—Mr. Wm. McNeal and Miss C. L. Gridley spent Labor Day at the home of Mr. James McClung, of Little Britain.

—Miss Mary I. Patterson, of Hartford, Conn., is visiting at the home of Mrs. G. B. Gillespie.

—A party from here spent Monday at Lake Mohonk.

—Harry Terwilliger caught a black snake, last Wednesday, in the Wallkill, near the swimming grounds. The reptile was over four feet in length, and was captured alive, although it was stunned by a blow from an oar. A sucker a foot long was in its mouth and seemed to be stuck in its throat. The snake was afterward chloroformed. We hope that the boys will not be frightened, but will continue to bathe in their favorite "deep hole."

—A little daughter of Mrs. J. Cashin had a narrow escape from drowning one day last week. While playing near T. W. Stratton's grist mill with her little brother she fell into the flume. Mr. A. Gardner heard her screams and ran to her assistance, although she was nearly exhausted.

—An enthusiastic citizen had a brick fall on his shoulder while in the cistern watching the progress of the work, on Friday.

—James Gill was arrested, on Thursday last, for being intoxicated and disorderly, and was arraigned before Justice Eager. He was sent to Goshen Jail for three months.

—Mrs. Catherine Daily was also arrested on the same day for the same cause, and after a similar examination was politely told that she also could sojourn with Sheriff Beakes for 60 days.

BROUCHT HIM TO TIME.

Brief Note That Brought a Long-Winded Speaker to a Full Stop.

Henry Watterson tells this story of Hon. B. Lawless, a former member of the Louisville bar, and who came from Glasgow, Ky. He was a "long-winded" talker, and when he arose to make an argument did not know when to stop. On one occasion he was making a speech before Judge Ballard, in the United States Court. He had spoken several hours and the Judge and everybody else were thoroughly tired out, though they were helpless.

At last Judge Ballard beckoned his brother Jack Ballard, to him and implored him to stop Lawless, if he could.

"Oh, that's easy enough," replied the brother; "I'll stop him inside of three minutes."

There was a great deal of curiosity to see how this could be accomplished, as the orator seemed to be nowhere near the end of his speech, Jack Ballard took a pencil and a sheet of paper and wrote:

"My Dear Colonel: As soon as you finish your magnificent argument, I would like you to join me to see Lillian Kennedy in 'A Midnight Frolic.'"

The note was handed to the orator who paused at the end of a soaring period, drew his glasses from his pocket and read the note. He put it in his pocket and said:

"And now, if it pleases your honor, and you, gentlemen of the jury, I leave the case with you."

MOUNT SALEM, N. J.

Improvements at the Church—Sunday School Picnic—Lecture by Mrs. Moore—The Sick List—Personal Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Great improvements have been made around the church the past week. The grounds have been graded to the level of the road, a new porch and steps have been built and good work generally has been done, as money enough has been raised to give the church a good coat of paint, which it is sadly in need of.

—The Sunday School picnic, held in Stoll's grove, just south of the village, last Thursday, was well attended and everyone had a good time. The only complaint heard was that the base ball game took too many of the young men and husbands away from the grove which left the children to the care of mothers and aunties. Ice cream was served free to all the children and they were happy.

—Mrs. Thomas Moore, of Passaic, gave a very interesting lecture in the church, Sunday morning, on the duties of parents to their children. The audience was large and attentive. Mrs. Moore is a very pleasant and plain speaker and very quiet and unassuming in her manner, and all who heard her speak in the highest praise of her.

—Mr. Thomas Moore, of Passaic, who has been spending the summer with his family at their place on the mountain road, near Mount Salem will return to the city this week. They have taken an active part in all the church affairs this summer and will be greatly missed in the community, but we hope to see them again next summer.

—Quite a number of our young people were absent from church, Sunday night. They went to the Clove Church to hear Mrs. Moore speak.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Casterline, of this place, are both confined to the bed with a complication of diseases.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Uptegrove, of New York city, are spending a couple of weeks at M. W. Elston's.

—Mr. Jos. L. Clark, of near this place, is on the sick list but is convalescent.

—The season is fast coming to a close. At High Point fifty of the guests left last week and the cool breezes up there will blow many more away this week.

—Miss Millie Elston, of Westtown, is spending a few days with her aunt, Fannie Elston, near this place.

DR FRAKER'S EXPERIENCE.

He Tells How He Became a Life Insurance Swindler.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 4.—Dr. George W. Fraker, the famous insurance swindler, arrived here in the charge of officers last night and was immediately put in jail. A curious throng met the party at the depot. He expressed himself as thoroughly glad to be near his old home again. To a reporter who met the train in Iowa the prisoner spoke freely of his case. His answers to questions, however, were given in an absent minded manner.

"I did not like the river the night we were fishing," he said, "and came near being drowned. However, there was driftwood floating in the stream, and I caught a log and floated down the river for a considerable distance. Finally I found a place where I could touch bottom, and waded out on land. I laid there all that night and all day the next day. I was in no condition to go back to the Springs, and accordingly went to Kansas City. Because of my appearance I went to a cheap rooming house on Grand avenue, near Fifth, and stayed there four days. On the second day I shaved off all my beard. I went to Chicago, and from there I went to Milwaukee and stayed most of the fall of that year.

"By that time the name of Fraker had been too much advertised, and I told a roommate that I was from Denver and my name was William Schnell. I went by the name of Schnell and have lived in Wisconsin and Minnesota ever since. I had not decided to stay away until the papers said all kinds of things about me. Then I knew I was in disgrace and could not make a living if I came back. I have started back a thousand times and came near coming, but the disgrace and what the people were saying about me kept me from doing so."

Cuban Insurgents Drive Out Miners.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—United States Consul Hyatt, located at Santiago de Cuba, in reporting to the state department upon the efforts of the Ponupo Mining company to supply Manganese ore for the American market, gives some details of an attack upon the miners employed by this company by the Cuban insurrectionists. The company is an American corporation, the principal stockholders residing in Pennsylvania but Spanish officers derive a tonnage royalty from the mines. This fact excited the displeasure of the rebels to such an extent that they fired upon the miners, causing such a stampede that the mine was compelled to close. General Maceo has since promised protection, but it has been impossible to prevail upon the men to return.

Charges Against Mine Operators.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 4.—A bill in equity has been filed in the prothonotary's office against prominent coal operators involving $25,000. It was filed by Judge Rhone, George Tucker Bispham and J. Butler Woodward, attorneys for George B. Markle, Alvin Markle and their sister Clara. A bill was also filed against E. P. Wilbur, John Markle, the executors of ex-Congressman Lilly, and others, charging that the latter are wholly excluding the former from any lot or part in the management of the extensive Jeddo mines of George B. Markle & Co., of Hazleton. The bill also charges mismanagement by John Markle, manager.

Peru's New Government.

LIMA, Peru, via Galveston, Sept. 4.—The new government has set about the work of undoing some of the acts of its predecessors, from which it took the reins of government in April last. In the chamber of deputies yesterday a motion was made to declare null and void all the acts of the congress for 1894, to expunge from the army lists the names of Generals Caceres and Borgono and to annul the acts of their government. Provision is also made to prosecute them by the supreme tribunal, and also the ministers who are guilty of the coup d'etat in 1894.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the State of New York are requested to unite in sending three delegates and three alternates from each Assembly district to a State Convention, to be held at Syracuse on Tuesday Sept 24th, 1895, at 12 o clock noon, for placing in nomination candidates to be voted for at the ensuing general election, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention

J W HINKLEY Chairman
Attest JOHN B JUDSON, Secretary.

The window glass factories of the country, when they start up Sept. 21, will pay 11 per cent. more wages than they did last year. The advance, which was agreed upon at a conference between manufacturers and employes at Pittsburg, affects 10,000 men.

Republican harmony has broken out in Monroe county. Ex-Congressman VanVoorhis charges that Platt's henchman, Superintendent of Public Works Aldridge, spent $1,500 in carrying the primary in the town of Perrington. The price of votes ranged from $3 to $5 and nearly the whole Republican vote of the town was cast.

"Lou" Payn, Platt's most trusted lieutenant, is leading a movement for downing Comptroller Roberts and Attorney General Hancock, who have been altogether too independent to please the Platt machine. What interests politicians is to learn how far Payn's activity is sanctioned by Platt. It has been given out that Platt desired the renomination of the present State officers, as the easiest and surest way of avoiding complications and if he has determined to drop out Roberts and Hancock, it means that he is sure enough of his grip on the party to indulge in the luxury of punishing those who were too independent to do his bidding.

Supervisors Boyd, Bradley, Adams, Goodsell and Loughran, who appeared before the State Board of Equalization, at Albany, yesterday, would have fared no better than the representatives of other counties, who sought decreased valuations, had it not been that they were accompanied by B B. Odell, Jr., chairman of the executive committee of the Republican State Committee, and one of the big Republican bosses. Mr Odell demanded that $3,000,000 be taken from Orange county, and the Republican Board of Equalization obeyed his mandate. It was the only change made by the Board, and made it necessary to revamp the entire table of valuations. If you want anything from Republican officials there's nothing like having a Republican boss along to make the demand.

W C T. U CONVENTION

Proceedings of the County Convention in Session in St. Paul's Church

At the session of the W. C. T. U. County Convention, yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Lucy H. Washington, of Port Jervis, the county president, spoke of the good work done by the different departments and also of the success of scientific temperance instruction in the public schools.

Miss Emma Birch Shafer of Pine Bush, the corresponding secretary, reported that the local unions were active and prosperous.

The treasurer, Mrs. Hannah M Isaac, of Cornwall Landing, reported that the balance in the treasury was $35 51.

The special feature of the Loyal Temperance Legion hour, conducted by Mrs. Chambers, of Middletown, was the singing of two colored children.

At the evening session Mrs. S. S. Fessenden, president of Massachusetts W. C. T U., addressed the audience on "The Responsibility of the Government for the Liquor Traffic." She handled her subject with a great deal of skill, bringing out several fine points and strong arguments

This morning an election of officers took place, the former officers being re-elected as follows.

Pres —Mrs Lucy H. Washington, Port Jervis.
Vice-Pres —Miss Margaret Sloat, Newburgh
Cor. Sec'y—Miss Emma B. Shafer, Pine Bush
Rec Sec'y — Mrs. C. Augusta Goodale Fairchild, Swartswood, N.J.
Treas —Mrs. Hannah M. Isaac, Cornwall Landing.

The convention is holding its last session, this afternoon.

In your blood is the cause of that tired, languid feeling. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes rich, red blood and gives renewed vigor. 12

Which is worse, imprisonment for life or a life-long disease, like scrofula, for example? The former, certainly, would be preferable were it not that Ayer's Sarsaparilla can always come to the rescue and give the poor sufferer health, strength, and happiness.

WAS IT AN ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE?

Constable James S. Paddock, of Warwick, Found Unconscious from Gas in a New York Hotel.

BY UNITED PRESS.

NEW YORK Sept. 4 —James S Paddock, of Warwick, N. Y., was discovered unconscious from illuminating gas in the Northwestern Hotel, last night. He has not yet recovered his senses, but the doctors say he will recover. It is believed Paddock attempted suicide.

Paddock is a constable of the town of Warwick. He was at one time employed in a creamery and then carried on a cigar and newspaper store, but disposed of it some time ago. A telephone inquiry elicited the answer that nothing was known in Warwick of his supposed attempt at suicide, nor was any reason known why he should attempt self-destruction.

SAVED FROM DROWNING.

A Young Woman Rescues Dr. Cassidy at Glenmere Lake

Dr. A. W. Cassidy, of Goshen, had a narrow escape from drowning at Glenmere Lake, on Friday. He was swimming with a party of friends in the lake and left the boat to swim to the bath house.

When some distance from the shore he was seized with a sudden faintness and was unable to keep afloat.

Miss Flemming, of Bayonne, rowed out to him and reached him as he came up for the last time and soon brought him into shallow water. Another woman who was in a boat near the drowning man, was so badly frightened that she could do nothing to save him.

AN INTERESTING PUBLICATION.

The Portrait and Biographical Record of Orange County.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the forthcoming "Portrait and Biographical Record of Orange County," now being compiled by the enterprising publishers, Chapman Publishing Co., of Chicago. It is a work that is receiving the support of many of the leading professional and business men and farmers in all parts of the county, and no other publication has shown up as this promises to do the men who developed the vast resources and enterprises of Orange county, one of the most beautiful and prosperous regions in our great commonwealth. The publishers inform us that the portraits of many distinguished men and women of the past, as well as many who are now active in the enterprises of to-day, together with many artistic views of residences, manufacturing establishments, colleges and churches, will grace the pages of this volume. Several intelligent, painstaking and careful men have, for several months, been gathering the material, and when completed the work will be, judging from the preparations, a valuable compendium of the wealth, prosperity and enterprise of Orange county.

TENTH LEGION REUNION.

Members of the 56th N. Y. V. Have Their Annual Gathering in This City.

The ninth annual reunion of the 56th Regiment, N. Y. Vols, or as it is probably better known, the Tenth Legion, was held at the Assembly Rooms, in this city, to-day. The attendance was large, members of the legion being present from all over Orange, Sullivan and Ulster countiee, but as the old veterans are scattered all over the United States, from Maine to California, there were many who were unable to meet with their comrades to-day.

The membership of the association was 660 when the notices of the meeting were sent out, but it is one less, to-day, Comrade Alex Torbush, of Matteawan, having passed away on Monday, at the age of sixty-seven years.

Wm. Beyea's drum corps, of New Vernon, was engaged to furnish music for the occasion and was on hand to meet the delegations at the depots as they came in from neighboring places, and escorted them to the Assembly Rooms.

The meeting was called to order at 11 o'clock by the President, Capt. Decker, of Newburgh. The exercises were opened with the song "America," in which all the veterans joined with a hearty good will.

An address of welcome was then delivered by City Attorney J. L. Wiggins, in the absence of Mayor Stansbury.

Rev. Jesse F Shafer, the Chaplain of the association, responded in a few brief remarks.

Following this Miss Lottie Wells gave a violin solo, with Miss Mullen as accompanist.

Mr. Wm. R. Miles, of Danbury, Conn., requested the members of the association to pass in review before him, and as they did so, he presented each of them with a miniature Grand Army hat, a perfect facsimile of those worn by the members of the order. These the veterans pinned to the lapels of their coats and they will doubtless do duty at many future reunions of the association.

At the conclusion of Mr. Miles's address the association adjourned for dinner, arrangements having been made with proprietors of all the restaurants to look after the welfare of the veterans.

THE AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was held at 1:30 o'clock and was opened with prayer by Rev. Geo. P. Van Wyck, after which the minutes of the last meeting and the company reports were read.

Then followed the memorial services, during which the members stood for a few minutes with bowed heads in honor of their dead comrades.

Rev. Jesse F. Shafer offered resolutions on the death of the late Moses D. Stivers, and delivered a short eulogy, in which he spoke of the deceased as a friend of the soldier and especially of the Tenth Legion and its honored commander.

Members of the Legion always look forward to these reunions in the hope of meeting their old commander, Col. C. H. Van Wyck, or at least of hearing read a message from him. This year, however, they were greatly disappointed when no greeting came from their Colonel, and pained to learn that this was due to his enfeebled condition, and that it will not be long until his name is added to the list of the dead comrades who have answered the last roll call.

The treasurer's report showed a balance in the treasury of $137.

Rev. Geo. P. VanWyck, a brother of Col. VanWyck, who was the chaplain of the regiment during the war was called out and made a brief address.

Rev. Jesse F. Shafer, of Newburgh, advocated the purchase of a flag for the regiment.

The death roll during the year was as follows: Dr. Ira S. Bradner, Middletown; Carmile McConnell, Companies C and F, Newburgh; Robert Carr, Company C, Newburgh; Samuel Cash, Company A, Newburgh; James Jenkins, Company G, Newburgh; David L. Kellum, Company L, Hankins; Alex Bush, Company A, Matteawan; A. VanKleeck, Company D, Johnsville, N. Y; T. W. Gibbs, Troop C, Middletown.

A motion to appoint a nominating committee was killed by an amendment to nominate by acclamation and Victor Champlin, of Liberty; W. R Miles, of Danbury, and Col. Decker, of Newburgh, the old presiding officer, was nominated for president. It was voted to elect by ballot, much to the dissatisfaction of some of the members.

The following officers were elected:
President — Wm. R. Miles, Danbury, Conn.
Vice-President — Ebenezer Chase, of Matteawan.
Secretary—W. H. D. Blake, of New Paltz.
Treasurer—Joel C. Fiske, of Liberty.
Chaplain—Geo. P. VanWyck.

It was voted to hold the next meeting in Middletown, the officers to fix the date.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Report of Building Committee—The Plan of Pierce & Brun Adopted for the New Academy—Second and Third Prizes—The Council Asked to Call a Taxpayers' Meeting.

An adjourned regular meeting of Board of Education was held last evening, present, Messrs. Wiggins, Swaim, Howell, Galloway, Harding, Dayton and Corwin.

The Building Committee, on the plans of the proposed new High School, presented the following unanimous report:

We, the undersigned committee appointed to receive plans and specifications with reference to an additional or new edifice for the Wallkill Academy or new High School building, to be erected upon the site of the present academy, corner of Academy and Little avenues, do hereby respectfully report:

That we issued a circular to architects on or about the eleventh day of July, 1895, specifying the size and kind of building desired, and inviting competition under a system of prizes, the first prize to be the acceptance of the design, the second prize to be $150 and the third prize to be $100; the second and third prizes to be paid out of the commissions of the architect whose design was accepted,

That fourteen designs in all were sent to us and have been duly considered and estimates made thereon, and we do hereby report in favor of adopting and accepting the plans and designs submitted by Pierce & Brun, of New York city.

That the estimated cost of said building, with such changes as we would recommend and adopt, is $54,000 and that the cost of a proper system of heating and ventilation we estimate to be $6,000

That we report in favor of awarding the second prize to Boring & Tilton, architects, 57 Broadway, New York, and that we report in favor of awarding the third prize to Smith & Wentworth, associated architects, Middletown and Paterson. All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated Middletown, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1895.

HYMENEAL.

Merrill—Parsons.

Edwin S. Merrill, Esq., a popular young lawyer of this city, and Estella May, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt H. Parsons, were married last night, at the home of the bride's parents at Eight-and-a Half Station.

Rev. Wm. A. Robinson, D. D, of this city, performed the ceremony the bridal party standing under a bower of evergreens and cut flowers in a corner of the parlor.

The bridesmaid was Miss Roxy Smith, of 12 Grant street, this city. Mr. Alfred Hill, of Cambridge, N. Y., a classmate of Mr. Merrill's in Williams College and also in the Washington law school, was best man.

The bride's cousin, Miss Ethel Greenleaf, of New York, acted as flower girl. The ushers were Messrs Wm J. Burke, Fred E. Lendrum and Fred Williams, all of this city.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white silk profusely trimmed with lace and ribbon. The bridesmaid wore white albatross trimmed with ribbon.

A delicious and bountiful supper was furnished by Mrs. Cavanaugh.

The bridal party departed for New York and Washington by the 10:40 Erie train. Gen. DeWitt Camp Drum Corps, in which Mr. Merrill has taken a lively interest, was at the station on the arrival of the bridal party and serenaded them. Mr and Mrs. Merrill will return in about ten days.

WORK ON THE ASYLUM LINE.

Excavation for the Bridge Begun—Absence of the Mayor and Acting Mayor Caused Delay.

Work was commenced, yesterday, on the excavations for the abutments for the electric railway bridge over the Erie tracks at Summit avenue.

Owing to the fact that the Mayor is still in the woods, and the Acting Mayor has been along the Delaware, and there was no one in town to approve the resolution granting a franchise for Bonnell and Stanton streets, the company lost much valuable time, as it was not deemed advisable to begin work on these streets until the franchise was assured.

The Port Jervis Hospital Incorporated

The hospital in Port Jervis established by the late Dr. J. H. Hunt in 1892 and which was purchased by Drs. Cuddeback and Swartwout, has been incorporated under the laws of the State and Dr. R. F. Medrick has become associated with the above named physicians in its management. The institution is incorporated under the name of "The Port Jervis Hospital."

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Band Concert at Midway—Improvements on the Berdell Property—Personal and Local Notes.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—The Goshen Cornet Band will give an open air concert at Midway Park, this evening. They will be assisted by several skilled musicians from New York and it is needless to state that an excellent concert will be given.

—Mr. W. M. Haskell, who recently purchased of Judge S. W. Fullerton the Berdell property, on Murray avenue and Montgomery street, is erecting a large conservatory, and the foundation is now about completed. Mr. Haskell's intentions are to erect other buildings on the property this fall and make a number of improvements.

—Mr. Thomas S. Robinson, of New York city, is visiting his brother, Dr. H. H. Robinson.

—The Goshen Vocal Society will resume its regular rehearsals, Friday night, at 7.30.

—The Good Templars will have some exercises of a literary nature at their meeting, to-night.

—Mr. G. E. Potter and family started, to-day, for the Adirondack region where they will remain during this month.

OBITUARY.

Mrs Mary A. Raye.

Mrs. Mary A., wife of Mr. Harry Raye, of Susquehanna, Pa, died in Thrall Hospital, last night, in her forty-sixth year.

She came to this city from Susquehanna, several weeks ago, suffering from an internal cancer. The only hope of relief was a surgical operation, which was performed at the hospital soon after her arrival, but even this heroic treatment could not save her life.

Mr. and Mrs. Raye formerly resided in this city, but removed to Susquehanna about nine years ago.

The funeral will be held Friday, at 2.30 p. m., at the residence of D. B. Bush, corner of Washington and Oak streets. The interment will be in Hillside.

Howard Impson.

From Our Montgomery Correspondent.

Mr. Howard Impson, one of the oldest and best known citizens of this village, passed peacefully away at 6:30 o'clock, Tuesday evening, at his home on Union street, after a lingering illness.

The deceased was about eighty years old and death was due to general debility.

Mr. Impson was employed in the New York Custom House for over twenty consecutive years. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Miss Julia, who lives at home, to mourn his loss.

Mrs Mary F. Haines.

Mrs. Mary F. Haines, mother of B. F. Haines, editor of the Wayne Independent, died at Honesdale, last evening, aged nearly eighty-seven years. She was a native and for many years a resident of Montgomery, this county. Interment at Goodwill, Friday noon.

HIS ATTEMPT TO DESCRIBE A RAM FIGHT IN RING VERNACULAR.

The Bride Ventured a Suggestion Which Caught On—The Preacher Didn't Fully Succeed In Appearing Unsophisticated. The Little Ram's Ring Tactics.

A preacher told this story at a wedding supper on the South Side the other evening:

"I was riding along a country road near Bloomington," he said, "when I noticed a group of sheep in a pasture. There was a large open space in the midst of the flock, and at either end of the space stood a ram. In the center, but standing a little at one side, was a third ram. The two rams had evidently had a falling out about something, or else they had come to settle in a friendly contest which was the better ram. Ram No. 3 seemed to be acting as—judge, umpire—what do you call it? Referee? Yes, that's it, the third ram was the referee. I don't know under what rules the meeting took place. It may have been Queensberry or Roseberry. You see I am not up to these technical matters.

"When all the preliminaries had been arranged and both contestants had been cautioned apparently that there was to be no 'fouling'—I think I have seen that word in the newspapers occasionally, and therefore I suppose it is a correct word to use in this connection—each backed off to the farthest limits of the circle, which, by the way, was not a squared circle. The referee stepped out of the way, and the rams dashed toward each other. When their heads came together, there was a terrific crash, and the force of the concussion threw them as far apart as the length of this table."

All the guests looked the full length of the table from the passion flowers at one end to the bride's cake in the far perspective, and then at the preacher in the middle distance, but nobody said anything.

"Then," continued the preacher, "they took their places, apparently none the worse for the encounter. Again, evidently at a preconcerted signal from the referee, they dashed together. This time the shock was even more terrific than the first, and I noticed that as one of them went back to his—ah, what do they call it, corner?—he was a little unsteady on his legs."

"Groggy!" ventured the bride.

"I believe that is the technical term," replied the preacher, "although, as I have intimated, I am not at all familiar with sporting phraseology. When time was called for the third round—ahem—that is, I mean to say when the rams had recovered strength for a third collision—there was another rush, a crash, and one of the rams, the one you so aptly described as 'groggy' (with an acknowledgment to the bride) fell to his knees. His adversary did not seem inclined to follow up his advantage, but possibly he may have been restrained by the rules of the meeting. At any rate, after contemplating his fallen foe gravely for a moment he walked back to his place. The other ram, after resting briefly, struggled to his feet. The third ram—the one I have called the referee—looked at him rather inquiringly, as it seemed to me, but the warrior showed no sign of recognition. He ambled to his side of the ring and faced about. A murmur of some sort seemed to go through the flock. The odds were apparently 3 to 1 in favor of the other ram—that is to say, it seemed to be the general opinion that the ram with the weak knees had been outclassed, as the other one was decidedly the heavier of the two.

"However, the smaller ram seemed to have wonderful recuperative powers. When the proper interval had elapsed, he came up smiling, as it were. I even thought I could see a twinkle in his eye, for I was quite close to the fence, and this thing took place only a little distance away. As the referee stepped back from the center of the ring, where he kept his position between the meetings, the other two rams drove at each other pellmell. At the very instant when their hard horns would have met, however, the smaller ram suddenly changed his course to the right, and the other went through the ranks like a cannonball.

"Just as he turned about, evidently boiling over with indignation at the trick which had been played on him, the other one, with the added force given by a longer run from one side of the circle to a point several feet outside of it, where the larger ram's momentum had carried him, shot at him like a cannon ball, striking him full in the face and driving him several feet away, where he lay limp and helpless. The third ram, who was promptly on the spot, as I suppose every competent referee should be, nodded his head several times—indeed it looked to me as if he was counting—and then the fallen ram failing to rise the whole flock marched away toward a knoll in another part of the meadow with the victorious ram at the head. Presently the defeated ram got on his feet and made his way to a secluded spot down by a little run, where I saw him reclining in the shade of a large willow tree as I rode away."

"What an interesting study natural history is," said the bride's grandmother as she adjusted her glasses.

"It is indeed," said the groom's father, coughing behind his napkin.—Chicago Tribune

BANKRUPTCY

—of the physical being is the result of drawing incessantly upon the reserve capital of nerve force. The wear, tear and strain of modern life are concentrated upon the nervous system. The young men of our day become sufferers from nervous debility or exhaustion, nervous prostration or weakness. This may be the result of too much mental worry and excitement, or the result of bad practices and excesses, or pernicious habits, contracted in youth, through ignorance. They feel irritable, weak and nervous with such distressing symptoms as backache, dizziness, shooting pains in head or chest, sometimes indigestion. The middle-aged men, as well, suffer from exhaustion, loss of manly power, low spirits, impaired memory, and many derangements of mind and body. The ill-used brain is morbidly wide awake when the overworked business man attempts to find rest in bed.

The physicians and specialists of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute devote their best energies to reclaiming and restoring such unfortunates to health and happiness. A great Doctor Book of 1000 pages, profusely illustrated, treating of these maladies and setting forth a rational means of home-treatment for their cure, is sent on receipt of twenty-one (21) cents for postage and wrapping only.

Weak, Irritable, Tired

"I Was No Good on Earth."

Dr. Miles' Nervine strengthens the weak, builds up the broken down constitution, and permanently cures every kind of nervous disease.

"About one year ago I was afflicted with nervousness, sleeplessness, Creeping sensation in my legs, Slight palpitation of my heart, Distracting confusion of the mind, Serious loss or lapse of memory. Weighted down with care and worry. I completely lost appetite And felt my vitality wearing out, I was weak, irritable and tired, My weight was reduced to 150 lbs., In fact I was no good, on earth.

A friend brought me Dr. Miles' book, "New and Startling Facts," and I finally decided to try a bottle of DR. MILES' Restorative Nervine. Before I had taken one bottle I could sleep as well as a 10-yr.-old boy. My appetite returned greatly increased.

When I had taken the sixth bottle My weight increased to 175 lbs., The sensation in my legs was gone; My nerves steadied completely; My memory was fully restored. My brain seemed clearer than ever. I felt as good as any man on earth. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is A great medicine, I assure you."

A DROP OF WATER.

The Wonders That May Be Seen Therein Through a Microscope.

To the ordinary mortal a drop of water is what the primrose was to Peter Bell, a drop of water and nothing more, but to the student of nature, armed with a high power microscope, it immediately becomes a world teeming with living creatures, the most minute representatives of animal life. These thoughts were suggested by reading Professor Grace's description of a battle he once witnessed while examining a collection of rotifers, which were amassed in a single drop of fresh water. Among others, Mr. Grace noticed a fine specimen of infusorian, which was swimming back and forth among the rotifers, as if intent on mischief. On the following day it was noticed that the rotifer colony had lost several of its members, and that the infusorian's form had rounded out until he resembled a miniature St. Louis bartender. Mr. Grace now resolved to watch the infusorian's movements and ascertain if possible the modus operandi whereby the capture of such expert swimmers as the rotifers are known to be was effected. A few minutes' wait sufficed. Soon it was noticed that the infusorian was slowly and continuously working his way around the foot of a rotifer, which was resting on the glass slide.

Around and around he went as slyly as a mouse in an oats bin, and when he had finished it was noticed that the rotifer's foot was firmly cemented to the glass. The infusorian, seeming to know his victim was secure, began to goad the tethered creature and torment it in all the ways that devilish ingenuity could suggest. He would jump upon its back and bite it in several places with lightninglike rapidity and then spring off and seize a leg and pull it almost from its socket. Mr. Grace says that he watched this unequal combat for nearly a half hour, when it was noticed that the rotifer was dying from exhaustion. Noting the death of his victim, the infusorian proceeded to devour his prey, as he doubtless had done the others that were missing.

Mr. Grace next examined a small body of water, consisting of four drops, in which there were several infusoria and rotifers. The former proved the enemies of the latter, just as in the single drop previously examined. It was also noticed that the infusorian, having devoured a victim, would almost immediately divide into two or four new animals, each of which would quickly swim away in search of prey, just as its parent had done before.—St. Louis Republic.

BISMARCK'S BIG HEAD.

Measurements Showing That the Space For Brains In It Is Extraordinary.

Bismarck's head, says a correspondent of L'Anthropologie, has been carefully measured according to the rules of anthropometrics by the sculptor Schaph of Berlin, who made the statue of Bismarck set up at Cologne. The measurements prove that Bismarck has a head of extraordinarily large size. Measured horizontally from the frontal bone to the occiput the head is 212 millimeters, or more than 8.35½ inches. The distance from temple to temple is 170 millimeters, or a trifle over 6.69 inches. Bismarck's cranium has a capacity of 1,965 cubic centimeters, and his brain should weigh 1,597 grams.

These figures become especially significant when compared with the measurements of other heads. Of 2,500 heads measured at Baden Baden only one exceeded 200 millimeters horizontally from front to back, and that one measured 206 millimeters, or six millimeters less than Bismarck's. The mean measurements of 30 members of the Natural Science society at Carlsruhe were 195 millimeters from front to back by 155 millimeters from temple to temple. The biggest of these heads measured 205 by 162 millimeters. The cubic measurement of 245 German heads was nearly 500 cubic centimeters under Bismarck's, while the estimated weight of Bismarck's brain is 35 per cent above that of the average adult European brain. In fact, Bismarck is a man not only of blood and iron, but as well of brains.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST EXPERTS.

They point out, locate and describe every ache, pain and disagreeable feeling more fully, clearly and explicitly than has ever been done by any physicians on earth, and better than the patients can themselves; they understand and explain disease at a glance and historize its incipiency, progress and termination.

No person should doctor any further or take any more Medicine before consulting them

Not only will callers be surprised at their wonderful knowledge of disease, their plain, concise explanation of every cause and effect, but at the marvellous rapidity with which their new, common sense RATIONAL treatment goes to the very seat of the trouble giving almost instant relief, and in all cases that have not progressed too far

A Perfect, Absolute and Permanent Cure.

These doctors wish it distinctly understood that they will not take incurable cases—reserving the right to reject any case that in their judgment has passed into the incurable stage. Last year 4,791 were so rejected. At some prior stage these cases were probably all curable. SEE TO IT THAT YOU DO NOT DELAY TOO LONG.

Young or middle aged men suffering from Specific or Special Nervous Diseases find IMMEDIATE RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE under the RATIONAL system discovered, formulated and employed by these Doctors.

Hours 9 a. m. until 6 p. m. Sundays Closed.

MISS JONES.

You may mention her name, but it never conveys
An idea of the exquisite tones
Of her voice or her sparkling, bewildering ways,
For her name—it is simply "Miss Jones!"

It gives you no hint of her golden brown hair,
Of her eyes that outshine precious stones,
Of the flush of her wit, or her highly bred air,
When they merely allude to "Miss Jones."

It leaves you to guess at the men in her train,
And her suitors' despairing groans,
At the charm that proves fatal to many a swain—
Unexpected in everyday "Jones."

But when you have seen the effect of her glance
On raw youth or decrepit old bones,
You'll admit that a knight never shattered a lance
For a "queen of the hearts" like "Miss Jones."

If her name could be changed, what a gain it would be—
A fact which she cheerfully owns;
But, at present, you see, she's confided to me,
She prefers to stay simply "Miss Jones!"
—Harry Romaine in Life.

A Letter to Her Husband.

[Fin de Siecle Style.]

DEAR WILL—Our daughter Ethel was married to a young man 17 minutes after our arrival at this most delightful of all summer resorts. I have not yet met the young man. May, being two years younger, took almost three hours to secure a husband. Poor dear! She is not nearly so experienced as Ethel, so there is no reason why she should feel so mortified. Our George is not doing nearly as well as the girls. He has proposed 11 times and tells me he got the "marble heart," whatever that means, in every instance. He has only been here 24 hours, however, and in my opinion was handicapped by his bicycle suit. They are so common, you know. Perhaps in his golfing costume he may do better. The baby is flirting with a pair of twins in the moonlight on the back piazza. That he will marry one of them before the week is out I am quite sure. But I do hope the poor dear will not commit bigamy, or shall I call it littleamy? I will see you when I come down Saturday if I do not in the meanwhile elope with a young French count who is stopping here. Every one says he is a spurious count. I don't know just what they mean by that, but I suppose it is something very complimentary. Lovingly, but hastily

Genius In Reduced Circumstances.

A moldy looking warfarer knocked at the back door of a humble dwelling in the suburbs the other morning and inquired of the woman who answered the knock:

"Do you want your piano tuned today, ma'am?"

"Land sakes!" she replied. "We haven't any piano."

"Perhaps the frescoing in your parlor needs touching up a little," he suggested.

"There ain't any frescoing in the parlor."

A look of deep melancholy settled on the face of the tourist.

"I am very sorry," he said. "By doing this kind of work for our best people I make my living. I was hoping I might be able by the exercise of one of my callings in your tasty cottage to earn my breakfast"—

"Lord love you, come right in!" cordially exclaimed the woman opening the door wide. "You're a greasy fraud and I know it, but you've got talent, and I admire talent wherever I meet it. How'll you have your egg—hard or soft boiled?"
—Chicago Tribune

Good For the Doctors.

Wilkins—I wonder why it is that the medical journals are beginning to take an interest in the improvement of country roads.

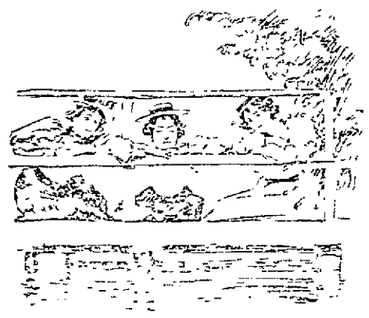
Bilkin—I don't know, but I have heard that bicycling has produced half a dozen new diseases.—New York Weekly.

Missed.

"Sir," said she to him indignantly, "just you put that right back where you got it."

"Indeed," remarked the bacillus to himself, "this is a surprise. I had no idea she would miss me."—Indianapolis Journal.

Hope Deferred.



Miss Passée—Oh, such fun! There's a yacht race and I'm going aboard! Miss Perkins—How lovely! Miss Passée—And I've just dyed my hair red!

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at McMonagle and Rogers' Drug Store.

TRACK RECORDS BEATEN.

Fine Trotting on the Goshen Driving Park, Yesterday—Close Contest in the 2:13 Class—The Other Events.

The Orange County Driving Park Association is to be congratulated upon the success which attends its fall meeting. Those who were present on the Goshen track, yesterday afternoon, saw the two fastest heats ever trotted in Orange county and two others within a quarter of a second of the previous best time.

The event was the 2:13 class for a purse of $600. Five horses faced the starter, but the race was practically between two horses. Cephas, a handsome bay gelding, who last year established the track record at 2:14¼, was made a hot favorite. Bush, a pretty little black mare, the property of Mr. C. H. Kerner, of Great Barrington, Mass., a former resident of Goshen, was made second choice.

Bush jumped into the lead at the start, with Cephas scarcely a length behind. The race soon resolved itself into a procession with Bush and Cephas struggling gamely for the lead. The little mare never faltered and crossed under the wire a full length ahead of Cephas in 2:14, thus beating the record by three-quarters of a second.

In the second heat Cephas broke at the furlong pole and did not recover the lost ground. He came so fast, however, that he forced the mare home in 2:13¼, a length ahead of him, with the others strung out far behind. Distance had been waived so that all horses started again in the third heat.

Bush led until the three quarter pole was reached when Cephas forced her off her feet. She was unable to regain her position and Cephas took the heat in 2:15.

The last heat was the prettiest of the race. Cephas had the pole with Bush second. The pair trotted as a team to the first turn, when Bush gradually forged ahead and when the back stretch was reached outfooted her rival and took the pole at the quarter mark. Neither horse broke during this flight, but the pace was too fast for Cephas, who broke at the five furlong mark. The mare then came away with a lead of a dozen lengths, winning easily in 2:15 without apparent distress.

The first race was the 1:40 class for a purse of $200 There were ten starters in the field. Miss Know won the first heat with Zella a good second. Keyes, who was a strong favorite before the heat, was third, the others strung out. Dick, Middletown's sole representative, was distanced.

Keyes repaid the confidence placed in him by his backers by taking the next three heats in an easy manner.

The two-year-old race furnished a suprise. Ella Madison was a favorite, but the mare was evidently not in condition. She was never a dangerous factor in the race, which was won handily by E. E. Harriman's Rival in two straight heats. Gerhard was second, Ella Madison third.

The summary:

NOTES

—The judges were Messrs. Colyer, of Brooklyn; Geo. Grier, of Goshen, and J. W. Lyon, of Port Jervis. Mr. C. F. Gladding, of Hartford, officiated as starter.

—One of the features of the meeting is the presence of the Goshen Band, one of the best musical organization in Orange county.

—M. R. Selden, who for the past three years has had the frankfurter privilege, is again on hand with his corps of assistants.

—Rival, the winner of the two year old race, has a distinguished lineage. He is a son of the celebrated Kremlin; his dam was by Squire Talmadge, who was a son of Hambletonian, dam by American Star. Gerhard, the winner of second money in the race, was sired by Kerner, dam by Knickerbocker.

—Jewell, record 2:09¼, will go to beat 2:12, this afternoon.

Base Ball Notes.

—The Port Jervis ball team went to Liberty, Monday, where they met defeat at the hands of the Meccas in a score of 13 to 6. A return game will be played at Port Jervis, to-morrow.

Weak and Nervous

Describes the condition of thousands of people at this season. They have no appetite, cannot sleep, and complain of the prostrating effect of warmer weather. This condition may be remedied by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which creates an appetite and tones up all the organs. It gives good health by making the blood pure.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, cure headache. 5

PRISONERS AT THE BAR.

Arraignment of Offenders in Judge Beattie's Court—G. S. Price Not Anxious for Punishment—Other Pleas of Not Guilty.

The September term of the County Court and Court of Sessions began in Newburgh, yesterday, Judge John J. Beattie presiding.

Ex-Sheriff Jacob M. Johnson, of this city, was made foreman of the Grand Jury.

The civil calendar was called and the cases set down for the latter part of the week.

Robert Stearns, Edward Nelson and Charles Armstrong pleaded guilty to burglary in the third degree, breaking into an Erie freight car, and were remanded for sentence.

George Sanford Price, who three weeks ago gave himself up for forgeries committed fourteen years ago, pleaded not guilty to the indictments. Evidently his conscience is not troubling him as it did a few weeks ago, and he is not so anxious to be punished as he then was.

Pleas of not guilty were entered as follows: Thomas Quinn and Michael Kane, grand larceny; Michael Welsh, assault in first degree and being an habitual criminal; Michael Carboy, rape.

Frank Howell pleaded guilty to forgery in the second degree.

A chain gang of nine or ten prisoners, whose cases are to come up, this week, was brought down from Goshen.

DOINGS OF THE 24TH

Arranging for the Annual Reception—To Visit Newburgh, Sept 26.

The regular monthly meeting of the 24th Separate Company was held last evening.

The annual reception and the proposed fair were the principal topics discussed. Capt. McIntyre, Lieutenants Stivers and Ashley, Sergeant Wallace, Corporals Conkling and Jones, Privates T. K. DeWitt, E. M. Decker, A. J. Smith, A. C. N. Thompson and Elliott Weed were appointed a committee of arrangements for the annual reception, with power to select a date. The reception will probably be held, as usual, in November.

The company decided to go to Newburgh, Thursday, Sept. 26, for the return field day with the 5th Separate Company.

The Fair Committee submitted a report of the work already accomplished toward the proposed fair.

ON THE RIFLE RANGE.

Members of the 24th Qualify as Marksmen—Armorer Rose a Sharpshooter.

The members of the 24th Separate Company had another qualification day at the Hawkins range, yesterday. Armorer E. H. Rose qualified as a sharpshooter with a score of 24 and 19 at 500 and 600 yards.

To Attend the Dedication of the Soldiers' Monument at Monticello

Gen. Lyon Post, G. A. R., has accepted an invitation to attend the unveiling and dedication of the Sullivan county soldiers' monument, in Monticello, to-morrow afternoon, Sept. 5th, and it is expected that a goodly number of the members will go to Monticello.

The Mount Lebanon Shakers have recently perfected an ingenious cure for dyspepsia. Their Digestive Cordial consists of a food already digested and a digester of foods happily combined.

The importance of this invention will be appreciated when we realize what a proportion of the community are victims of some form of stomach trouble. Thousands of pale, thin people have little inclination to eat, and what they do eat causes them pain and distress.

This Digestive Cordial of the Shakers corrects any stomach derangement at once. It makes thin people plump. Everyone will be greatly interested to read the little book which has been placed in the hands of druggists for free distribution.

THE P. J., M. AND N. Y. RAILROAD

Annual Election of Directors and Officers.

The annual election of directors of the Port Jervis, Monticello and New York Railway Company was held in Port Jervis, yesterday. The following directors were chosen:

Chas. D. Haines, Lafe Pence, Andrew G. Haines, of Kinderhook, N. Y.; Elmer T. Haines, of Jamestown, N. Y.; Moses T. Stevens, of Massachusetts; C. T. Crisp, of Georgia; W. A. Stinchcomb, of New York; O. P. Howell, W. E Scott, Benj Ryall, P. E. Farnum and S. D. Lake, of Port Jervis.

The directors elected the following officers:

President—Chas. D. Haines.
Vice-President—Lafe Pence.
Treasurer—Andrew G. Haines.

President Haines is entirely satisfied with the outlook on the Monticello road and the business which the road has been doing fully meets his expectations. As for the extension to Kingston, Mr. Haines gives the assurance that nothing but a niggardly, short-sighted policy on the part of land owners in demanding exorbitant prices for rights of way will prevent it. The Monticello road has been doing a bigger business during the past summer than ever before in its history.
